divergence a source of creative thinking the outstanding job accomplished by bernard gary and gilles is really praiseworthy not only did they succeed in completing within a remarkably short span of time the editing of the contributions to the conference that marked the 20th anniversary of the european institute for advanced studies in management they have also managed to elicit numerous insightful comments from a host of dashing young scholars as well as from the fortunate few established authorities whose findings have long become leading articles in the best academic journals who now chair those journals editorial boards and after whom great scientific awards have been named in so doing our dedicated triumvirate has blended together pieces of diverse research traditions some of them quite puzzling and mixed significantly differentiated styles of expression the controversial display of self confidence by some distinguished colleagues the amazingly emotional good old memories revived by their peers the scapegoat finding and moralizing confessions produced by some of their disciples together with the detached systematic rigidity of some others all combine to produce a multivarious patchwork that may well prove the existence of a marketing scholar lifecycle this cartoon like four class typology might even make it worth the reader's while to indulge in some guesswork to discover the sequence of the four stages as an exercise and then partition the author population accordingly in on religious diversity robert mckim distinguishes and examines a number of possible responses to the knowledge of diverse religious traditions that is available to all of us today there is no escaping the fact that the presence of competing traditions now confronts each of the traditions in a new and forceful way and there is widespread if inchoate recognition of genuine religious sensibilities and genuine religious seriousness in others how might and how should an awareness of other traditions affect a member of a particular religious tradition what attitudes should be taken to the beliefs and salvific prospects of members of other traditions mckim examines several proposed answers to these questions offering the deepest analysis to date of such options as exclusivism and inclusivism he argues that what look like well defined and discrete positions dissolve somewhat under scrutiny revealing significantly different possibilities mckim suggests where best to look for the most plausible answers and makes a case for the attractiveness of inclusivistic options he pays particular attention to the religiously ambiguous nature of our circumstances and to the implications of this ambiguity a provocatively argued call for shifting the emphasis of critical theory from habermasian critique restricted to normative clarification to disclosure a possibility enhancing approach that draws on and reinterprets ideas of heidegger in critique and disclosure nikolas kompridis argues provocatively for a richer and more time responsive critical theory he calls for a shift in the normative and critical emphasis of critical theory from the narrow concern with rules and procedures of jürgen habermas's model to a change enabling disclosure of possibility and the enlargement of meaning kompridis contrasts two visions of critical theory's role and purpose in the world one that restricts itself to the normative clarification of the procedures by which moral and political questions should be settled and an alternative rendering that conceives of itself as a possibility disclosing practice at the center of this resituation of critical theory is a normatively reformulated interpretation of martin heidegger's idea of disclosure or world disclosure in this regard kompridis reconnects critical theory to its normative and conceptual sources in the german philosophical tradition and sets it within a romantic tradition of philosophical critique drawing not only on his sustained critical engagement with the thought of habermas and heidegger but also on the work of other philosophers including wittgenstein cavell gadamer and benjamin kompridis argues that critical theory must in light of modernity's time consciousness understand itself as fully situated in its time in an ever shifting and open ended horizon of possibilities to which it must respond by disclosing alternative ways of thinking and acting his innovative and original argument will serve to move the debate over the future of critical studies forward beyond simple antinomies to a consideration of as he puts it what critical theory should be if it is to have a future worthy of its past
